FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular dated 23rd February 1948.

All Drawing Officers.

Re: Railway fares admissible for journeys performed on and after 1st January 1948.

No. 480—B. II. The Railway fare admissible for journeys on Mysore State Railway was raised from 1½ to 1¾ so long as the rates of fares that existed prior to 1st January 1918, continued to be in force (vide Note 3 to Article 446, Mysore Service Regulations). Since these rates have been revised from 1st January 1918, Orders of Government have been sought in the matter of the fares to be allowed from 1st January 1918. Pending these orders, all Drawing Officers are requested to claim only 1½ fares in the case of I, II, Inter, and III Classes and 1 3/7 II Class in the case of those to whom 1 5/3 II Class was admissible till 1st January 1948, for journeys performed on and after 1st January 1918, provisionally, until further instructions. Excesses claimed and drawn already may be short drawn in the next bill.
